R.W.Bro. James Terry, OSM, PJGW.

It is with great sadness that we have to report the death of James Terry on 21st March 96 at the age of 92. He died peacefully in his sleep at Lord Harris Court, Sindlesham where he had been resident.

Much has been written about his connection with the RMBI and his love of our home which bears his name and that of his father and grandfather.

It is an understatement to say that he will be missed, but our work, and the continuing success of James Terry Court will be an ever present reminder of his contribution to our Institution.

In the words of the Prophet,
'As long as people remember me I shall never die.'

So may it be with James Terry.

Spring Frolic

On Friday 19th April, 1996

the sap was rising and over 100 Friends gathered together to celebrate the coming of Spring. We ate, drank, and learned how to line dance. Yeehaaa! One of our most successful functions.

Yes there will be another fun evening soon, probably in the Autumn when everything is ready to drop off.

Watch this space.

Summer Fete

Saturday 15th June, 1996.

Gates open at 2.00 p.m. Official Opening at 2.30 p.m. by Tommy Eytley, a well known star from television's 'EastEnders'.

Numerous Stalls and Sideshows, Games of Skill and Chance, Arts and Crafts, Home Made Produce and Confectionery, New and Nearly New Goods, many other exciting activities, and for the first time a 'Beer Tent'.

So come early, stay late, and join with the residents and friends for a fun filled afternoon.

Do not forget to fill in your details on the Admission Ticket to enter our Free Draw for a £150 cash prize.

Editor:

You can not help but notice the different format, and late arrival, of this Court Circular. Sadly our Editor resigned at short notice, due to the pressures of other commitments. This layout is temporary, (I think), so if you fancy your hand as a Rupert Murdock, or anyone else for that matter, contact the Chairman.

Patrons

On 25th February, 1996, Rev. Graham I. Williams, the M.E. Grand Superintendent of the Royal Arch Province of Surrey, unveiled a Patrons Board, bearing the names of those Lodges and Chapters who had contributed donations to become Patrons. The Board was very kindly donated by the Royal Arch Province, and bears an inscription to that effect. Over 100 Representatives from the first 22 Patrons names to be inscribed, as well as members of the Surrey Executive, and Ms. Jane Reynolds, Chief Executive of the RMBI, joined together in a reception to celebrate the occasion.

Money raised by Patronage has been, and will continue to be passed on to the RMBI and added to the Surrey 1997 Festival Appeal. Thus increasing the total raised. The money will be 'ringfenced' by the RMBI and used to build a much needed Sun Lounge at James Terry Court.

Thus by encouraging your Lodge\Chapter or other Masonic Unit in supporting us with Patronage, you will be supporting the 1997 Festival, supporting the RMBI and supporting James Terry Court. Three for the price of One. Now that is what I call value.

For details of Patronage please contact the Hon. Secretary.
