PATRONS

We have received permission from the R.W. Provincial Grand Master, and from the M.E. Grand Superintendent, for Lodges and Chapters in Surrey, who have become Patrons of JTC to acknowledge their patronage by printing on their summons in the appropriate place, 'Patron of James Terry Court'. We hope that this will duly record their status, and further strengthen the bond of friendship and support which is so kindly forthcoming. The proceeds from Patronage is being used to fund the building of an extension to be known as the 'Garden Lounge'.

Please continue to support us.

ALL THE WORLDS A STAGE

Due to the organisational abilities of Ron Everard, and the generosity of Derek Barr, our residents now have the opportunity to enjoy theatre outings on a regular basis. The quality care at JTC is now supported with quality activities. We are all players, and each plays many parts.

SPRING FROLIC

On Friday 9th May, the sap rose once again, and we enjoyed a repeat of last years successful Spring Frolic. It was better supported than the Autumn Frolic, so keep taking the pills. It was a financial, as well as a social success, and our 'Famous Frolics' will continue. Jacqueline Everard once again brought along some of her star pupils. Thanks to Betty Gazeley and her team of helpers for the arrangements, and Roger Thompson, 'chef extraordinaire' for the culinary delights.

NEW 100 PLUS CLUB

Following the retirement of Arthur Wadham as organiser of the 100 club, we have been very fortunate is recruiting John Youldon as a volunteer (what a lovely phrase), to run this very important, and indeed essential part of our fundraising activities. The first draw will take place on the second Sunday in October, (at the Coffee Morning at JTC), and at the same venue each month thereafter. Membership will cost £1 per month, and cash prizes will be drawn each month. For further details please write to John Youldon, 70 Blenheim Park Road, South Croydon, CR2 6BE.

Contact him now, because if not, you can be sure he will contact you.
Be lucky.
