Staff changes

Angela King started working at J.T.C.as a 'Care Assistant' in September 1992 and gained her N.Q.V. in "Care". achieving Level 3 - a very high Grade indeed!. We all knew Angela was 'going places', but nobody could have known how far: she now has a position at Kingston University Hospital, where we feel sure she will qualify as a Registered Nurse, or even obtain a Degree. We will all miss her, even though she is coming back to work with us at weekends. Good Luck, Angela, and thanks for caring for people in your own special way. Also,we are delighted to meet our new,recently appointed Deputy Home Manager, Diane Collins. In welcoming her, we trust she will enjoy working here.

RESIDENTS' ENTERTAINMENT

Betty Gazeley reports that on 11th.July, the Jacqueline Roberts School of Dancing entertained the residents with a very enjoyable display and the girls, as always, went round and chatted with them afterwards, a gesture much appreciated.

On 5th.August, "Dawn Chorus" gave a concert , and the usual monthly 'Singalong' was held, which still retains its popularity, and Gary Dean entertained on 19th.August.

September 9th. saw Lisa Ord celebrating her 95th. birthday, and Mr.A.Allo also celebrated his 95th. anniversary the following day, 10th.! The Jacqueline Roberts School of Dancing put on a show especially in their honour, including a solo dance from their youngest member (who is only five years old), and a brilliant Charleston from the senior girls, who were beautifully dressed in 1920s costumes.

On 19th.September, we held a Barn Dance, which proved a most pleasant evening, supporters and residents alike enjoying themselves. Fortunately, we had a lovely warm evening, enabling some folk to sit outside in the gazebo (when not dancing!), and during the evening a delicious barbeque was served. Special thanks must go to all the helpers who assisted in making this such a successful and profitable evening.

On Friday 25th.September, the Mandolin Group entertained, having given two previous concerts, and they always chat to the residents, which is much enjoyed.

It is planned to take the residents to Fairfield Hall to see the annual pantomime, and a Christmas lunch has been arranged at the Masonic Hall for residents on Wednesday, 23rd.December, where it is hoped that entertainment will be given by the ever-popular Jacqueline Roberts Dancers.

Urgently needed: Bric-a-Brac and raffle prizes for the Christmas Fayre. Delivery to James Terry Court, please !

It is a very pleasant thought that some of our residents are still happy to attend Masonic meetings, and our Almoner, Roger Thompson, will arrange the transport of such visitors whenever possible. However, Masonic Regalia can be a problem sometimes, and if anyone has spare regalia, it would be appreciated for such use.

May we take this opportunity to Wish all Staff at James Terry Court, all our Residents and all Friends the Very Best for the coming Festive Season and the New Year.
