RESIDENTS' ENTERTAINMENT

Betty Gazeley reports that 1999 commenced with a New Year Singalong on 6th January, when a real party atmosphere was created, with carnival hats, prizes and chocolates.

On 11th January, Martin Dike entertained on the piano, with Peter Coley on the saxophone.

The London Mozart Players paid us a visit on 6th February: this time it was the viola section of the orchestra, playing some unusual numbers, and also including two popular songs – “Danny Boy” and “Yesterday”. It was quite a novelty to hear Paul McCartney’s song on the viola! The residents enjoyed chatting to the artistes after the concert.

The afternoon’s entertainment on 24th February was provided by “The Melodians”, who comprised a tenor, a soprano, a pianist and a piano-accordionist.

JAMES TERRY COURT PATRONAGE

We have received permission from R.M.B.I. for Lodges (and Chapters, etc.) to become Patrons of Terry Court, and indeed, a Patrons' Board has been installed for names of Patron Lodges and others to be inscribed, and this will be updated annually. A reception, to which ladies are invited, will be held to "unveil" new names. By permission of the Provincial Grand Master, Patron Lodges may display their Patronage on the front of their Summons.

A Lodge may become a Patron with a Donation of £250; individual Patronage is available with contributions of £100 and this is open to Ladies or non-Masons. The Hon. Secretary will be pleased to provide more information, telephone 0181 654 3386.

As it is now common knowledge that the Government are taking strong measures to ensure the "safety" of any food supplied to the general public, R.M.B.I. have issued a Policy Statement on food supplied to the public at Fetes and other events, and guidance can be obtained.

In our January issue, we advertised our Barn Dance and Barbecue in May: it is regrettable that the Barbecue will not take place, but refreshments will be available.

So please remember:

Saturday 15th May 1999, a Barn Dance will be held at 7.30 pm at J.T.C.

Tickets are available at £4.50 from Betty Gazeley, telephone 0181 660 6067.
We hope to see you there!
